HAPPENINGS:

Item: October 7, United Parcel Service began deliveries to and from Europe; and October 15 was National Grouch Day to honor grouches.

Item: Excelsior Geyser, one of Yellowstone's major attractions in the 1880s, had its first eruption in 95 years in September. (It is in the Midway Geyser Basin to the north of Old Faithful.)

-- cont'd next col. --

Happenings - cont'd:

Item: Boy Scouts of America has changed its rules regarding necessity to believe in God or a Supreme Being, and local Troops have been instructed not to question members' specific religious beliefs.

Item: Bill Wilkinson, deputy Director of the Bicycle Federation of America, said 1984 bicycle sales totalled 10.3 million, with this year's total expected to reach 10.7 million; R.L. Polk Co.'s automotive statistical analysts said 1984 new-car registrations totalled only 10.1 million, with this year's expected to be only 10.6 million.

Item: A study by John McCullers (Okla. State Univ.) and James D. Moran, III (Virginia Poly-Tech), as reported in OMNI Magazine (Nov.), indicates that "plain" students outscore the "pretty" students by an average of about 7.5 points on the A.C.T. (American College Test).

Item: During the week of Oct. 21, a majority of the women in Iceland went on strike for 24 hours in protest of men's privileges. (In Iceland, women are paid 40% less than the men, own only 10% of the owned property, and are kept out of the top jobs.)

Item: The World Bank, the United Nations Food & Agriculture Organization, the United Nations Development Programme, and the U.S. Agency for International Development are all supporting a new 5-year, $8-billion program to save tropical forests as authored by the World Resources Institute and the United Nations Development Programme.

Item: The E.P.A. is almost ready to approve release of a man-made, genetically-engineered organism designed by Advanced Genetic Sciences (Greenwich, Conn.) to prevent (maybe!) frost-formation on field-crop plants.

V.I.P. LATE NEWS!!!!

It appears that Sen. Helms' "witchcraft amendment" to the Fiscal 1986 Treasury & Post Office Appropriations bill (Bill HR 3036- Amendment 705) has been quietly dropped and the bill passed without it.

MANY THANKS TO THE CRAFT/NEO-PAGAN COMMUNITY FOR RISING TO COMBAT THIS PIECE OF BLATANTLY NON-CONSTITUTIONAL GARBAGE, AND TO THE MANY OTHER PERSONS AND ORGANIZATIONS WILLING TO JOIN FORCES IN THE CAMPAIGN!!!

BUT -- What about HR-3389 authored by Rep. Robert Walker, (R), of Pennsylvania??
LEAVE US NOT RELAX TOO SOON!!!

Literates' Corner:

Wiccan-Style Magic Basics

Whether you're merely curious as to how Magical Practice integrates with Wicca or you intend to become a full-fledged Wiccan (or other Earth-Religion, for that matter) Practitioner, NATURAL MAGIC by Doreen Valiente should rank high on your list of references to explore or own.

With chapters on Mind, the Elements, Plants, Herbs, Colors, Talismans, Numbers, Dreams, Sex, Weather, Animals & Birds, and so on, NATURAL MAGIC is still, in our opinion, one of the best "entry-level" texts available for anyone wishing to "get a feel for" day-to-day usages and viewpoints of Magic within Wiccan and other of the Earth-Religion systems.

While heavily influenced in some areas by the Caballist system (predictably, in view of the focus on European Traditions), Valiente's NATURAL MAGIC offers an easy blending of Theory with Application, Valiente's suggested Applications being such as to be useable by almost anyone without "causing comment" among any bystanders.

If your friendly corner bookstore can't, or won't, get this $12.95 hardback (ISBN 0-919345-62-X), order it direct from the reprinter -- Phoenix Publishing, Inc., P.O. Box 10, Custer, WA-98240.

Ask the Old Man:

Question: What is likely to be the situation in America late November-early December?

Hexagram (Answer):

#15 Modesty #30 The Clinging, Fire

Late November looks like a time of heavy pressures to personal balancing; for the already-balanced person ("modest"--neither power-trippy nor obsequious, neither arrogant nor self-negating), all will favor beginning major projects or making major reorganizations in personal circumstances.

THOSE NOT BALANCED AS DESCRIBED MAY BE FORCED TO CONFRONT THEIR IMBALANCES OR HAVE GREAT PROBLEMS; BALANCED (AS DESCRIBED) PERSONS MAY SUCCESSFULLY BEGIN MAJOR PROJECTS OR SITUATION-CHANGES!

Early December looks like a time of confusions and "meteoric" (short-term, "flash-in-the-pan") bursts of enthusiasms and enlightenments, a time for holding onto a core of basic truths and discipline while using the "flashes" to identify and "root out" the real causes of imbalances and confusions.

EXERCISE SELF-DISCIPLINE AND STEADINESS WHILE IDENTIFYING AND ELIMINATING BAD HABITS AND REAL PROBLEM-SOURCES!

Be prepared for direct confrontation with your personal "glitches"!!!

*****
STAR-STUDIES:

You can call (202)653-0258 for the U. S. Naval Observatory's recorded message giving the current whereabouts of Halley's Comet as it moves along its present "pass".

And the word is that according to the "Eclipse-Point" approach to using Astrology for earthquake-prediction ("Star-Studies", Sept. T-bow), Nov. 25-26 and Dec. 2 & 7 are dates to watch for earthquakes.

Even though Halley's Comet will be farther from Earth and much dimmer than in recent past visits, many have the opinion that its psycho-spiritual and mundane effects will still be relatively strong.

On querying the National Earthquake Information Service in Boulder, Colorado--

On Oct. 20, Thunderbow queried the NEIS relative (a)were the stresses increasing or decreasing along the San Andreas in Southern California and (b)was the earthquake-"swarm" in western Yellowstone stopped or on-going.

NEIS refused to discuss the conditions in Southern California more recently than what was the case 3 - 4 years ago AND categorically denied any knowledge regarding the western Yellowstone events, even though these latter had been written up in the Rocky Mountain News of that morning.

***** Practitioners' Notes:

Practical Telepathy

Telepathy: Mind-to-Mind direct communication,
Emotion-to-Emotion direct communication being known as "Empathy".

For practical purposes, thought may be considered to be modulated energy, similar to the way speech (or sound) may be considered to be modulated air. Most of us live surrounded by our thoughts, and communicate primarily by speaking or writing. The difference between telepathy and talking is that the carrier (for telepathy) is directed energy not easily physically sensed.

Just as undirected speech goes nowhere, undirected thoughts go nowhere. Thus, the first thing to do, as with talking, is to know what you want to say, and to whom you want to say it.

Having this done, get the person's attention. Visualize the person, say "Hey, you!" (mentally, and with focus) sharply, then pull; and while pulling, be alert for any feeling of the person's attention "looking around" and touching you. If their attention touches you and starts to move off, say "It's me!".

When their attention is steadily focussed on you, deliver the message; then pull while waiting for a response. Repeat the send-receive sequence until you're through.

Here are some common "hangs":

- 1) Getting their attention -- Some people, when busy, will either not notice at all or will just bat your initial greeting off, sort of like swinging at a mosquito while focussed on something else. Others may have shielding up (either consciously or unconsciously). In either event, if you don't feel their attention after two or three tries, stop and wait 'til later.
- 2) Sending the message -- If you aren't tightly focussed, the message will scatter, rather like a flashlight as compared to a laser-beam.

Practitioners' Notes - cont'd:

3) Modulation -- Whatever emotion you're experiencing will get carried as part of the message. If the person on the other end is warding off that emotion, your message may get warded off, too.

4) Volume -- Once you've got their attention, neither "yell" nor "whisper". Put too much energy in, the effect is like yelling in someone's ear; it'll come across as raw noise and emotion, with the words not being understood.

At the other end, don't whisper. People get irritated at having to strain to hear things, often wondering if they're being talked to at all, and stop listening.

5) Tension -- If there's too much tension on the idea of Telepathy itself, things usually don't work well, or even at all. The tension becomes so distracting that you can't get a good focus on the other person. Light-heartedness about it helps!

6) Listening -- If you look at the sequence again, you'll see that you have to be willing to listen, else you'll miss the cues as to when you've got their attention.

7) Message-length -- Especially when you're just starting, keep it short, and to things that you can get feedback on pretty quickly, like "Call me!" and such.

"7)" points toward something that can make practice easier. The commonest set-up is to have some particular time arranged with another person for experiments, followed by "out-loud" talking to compare effects. Room-mates are often handy; otherwise, make arrangements with someone in the same city that you can then talk to in person or on the phone. Same-city keeps the phone-bills down. (And make the arrangements "out-loud"!)

***** American Larnunga:

If These Things Happen---

---Get ready for an earthquake soon! Birds won't land in trees or on poles. Dogs run in circles, howl, cry, and scratch to be let out of the house, and have been known to jump through closed windows, even 2 or 3 floors up. Cats and dogs leave home, and city animals go to the country while wild animals enter the city. Caged birds fly wildly, hitting cage-bars and refusing to perch, often until dying of exhaustion.

Voices In The Wind:

This is in response to a comment that Paul seemed (Aug., Sept., Oct. "Voices...") to be operating from a basis in a Common Idea that Man is inherently "bad" or incapable.

Yes, I did "miss the boat" on the inherent nature of Mankind. I think I missed the distinction between Man's true Nature as opposed to what I have been programmed to believe via my "Christian" upbringing, the first "kicker" in the Judeo-Christian morality-system being that Man is a Sinner from birth and that nothing can change that.

As you saw, that worked its way into my moral-system -- Man is just a Creature that, as such, is capable of being either "EVIL" or "GOOD" as He/She may Choose.

I appreciate the feedback on this, as it enables me to examine my concepts in a different light, this already influencing my dealings with my portion of the Universe.

As to where I derived my MORALITY-System, and what influenced me to do so -- in your books about Magic, you consistently admonish the reader/user to be aware of "RULES OF THE ROAD"; and, being aware of my own ignorance, I began questioning my Actions and Environment.

I began to see that for any given ACTION, there might be a definable RESPONSE, and that the Nature of the RESPONSE would be related to the Nature of the ACTION.

By understanding the relationships between the different types and combinations of ACTIONS, I feel I have more control over my results.

ENTHEOGENS & MAGIC:

Psilocybin

Psilocybin mushrooms can be found growing wild from the Arctic to the Tropics but are most evenly distributed in the Temperate climates. They grow in the soils and upon a variety of organic wastes such as rotting wood, humus, dung, and clumps of moss.

The early Spanish conquerors of Mexico discovered and drove underground (where it remains to this day) an important religious cult based on the sacramental use of Psilocybin, which the Native Indians called TEONANACATL, meaning "Flesh of the Gods".

Psilocybin - which is Illegal - allows the user a direct occult experience involving the hearing of invisible voices, divination, prophecy with curing & healing rites, etc.. It is generally agreed that the sacramental aspects lend themselves well to group Ritual-usage in the lower doses, these Rituals often spontaneously generated from the Plant's Spirit Voice rather than being Man-designed.

In larger dosages, the experience becomes less geared to the group and more personal, internal, and eccentric.

As the mushroom's Spirit enters the user, the first physical effects are not unlike mild alcohol inebriation with dizziness, muscular relaxation, etc., this being followed by extreme giddiness, hilarity, and difficulty in mental concentration & ordered hallucination-astral vision.

Intellectual contact with the Spirit may follow for 4 - 6 hours in the Pure Aspirant.

I should point out that like with many other sacramental entheogens, the Plant's inner Spirit cannot be commanded to appear; it is the grace of God/Goddess and the Integrity of the User which allow for the contact.

It is Illegal to possess or consume fresh Psilocybin; but spores (seeds) can be purchased by writing to: P.O. Box 420435, Sacramento, CA-95842.

Books to read to learn more about Psilocybin would include Stamet's The Mushroom Cultivator and Gordon Wasson's Soma.

POINT TO PONDER:

In some unfortunate cases, the only way to express love is simply to leave the person alone. -- Ashleigh Brilliant -- "Pot-Shots"

***** World-Change & "Enlightenment":

According to many Traditional Legends covering the topic of World-Change (Buddist, Hindu, Native-American, Aztec, Biblical), and according to data "turned up" in the course of Past-Life researches at Church Of Seven Arrows, there comes a point in the World-Change processes wherein, by some means not yet clear, people's psychic and spiritual perceptics and abilities are forced into full conscious operation, regardless of people's desires.

Also according to the Traditions and to our Past-Life researches, those who were willing to accept and adjust to this "opening up" got through World-Change pretty well; but those attempting to refuse, or combat, the new state of awarenesses and knowledge generally became insane and perished, usually after becoming first violent, then terrified, then hopeless (suicidally depressed).

The emotional disturbance accompanying an "opening up" as described seems to result mainly from one's becoming unexpectedly a fully-operative "Telempath" (Telepathy + Empathy), this necessitating handling not only others' but also one's own mental-emotional flows in addition to the energies occurring naturally in the General Environment, something very difficult to do unless one is truly in balance with oneself.

It has seemed to us that since late Summer, an unusual number of people have been manifesting either "wide-open telempathy" and/or the behavior-sequence described above, this leading to an idea that we are entering the "Opening of the 'Topkapi' (top-of-the-head)", or "Age of Enlightenment" phase of World-Change.

If this be the case, the effects can be expected to intensify for several years; and any who wish to "make it through" need to prepare to (a) become "willy-nilly Adepts" AND (b) accept that many others, including some of the "Near and Dear", will elect to go crazy and/or "opt out" rather than adjust to such a state.

SEVEN ARROWS' DOINGS:

October was extremely busy -- there were the Jesse-Helms Amendment "projects", a Denver Post interview, assorted referrals to the Clinic, a bunch of new people to talk to, and the assorted classes to "keep up with". The New Moon, conducted by Danny & Dee, went very well and provided some much-needed "grounding" for the rest of the month.

THIS MONTH (November) --

1. Nov. 9 (Sat.), 4:45-6pm, in Room #1 @Holiday Inn North (I-25 & 120th Ave.), is George's "Shaman's Viewpoints - Ancient & Modern" presentation at the Mind-Expansion Symposium, ref. "Projects & Gatherings", page 2.
2. Nov. 12 (Tues.), 7:30pm, @First Universalist Church (4101 E. Hampden Ave.), George participates with Dr. Forrest Whitman & Kaare Evenson, Sr. on a panel-discussion about the problems of "cross-referencing" Traditional Paths & Procedures to Modern Americans.
3. New Moon on 3rd day--Dee & Danny as Operators, several new people, and a couple of Wiccan guests.
4. Nov. 17 (Sun.), 2:00pm, at Hoyt St., will begin another Basic Magic study-series (26 wks, no tuition, covering "hands-on" fundamentals of Magical Practice).

And Remember --

Trilogy Bookstore, 630 E. 6th Ave. (6th & Wash.), Denver, CO-80203, ph. (303) 722-7612, stocks our textbooks, has our Reading-List & will have or attempt to get books needed by students, and carries the Tarot-decks we recommend.

Power-Talismans in sterling silver designed especially for Seven Arrows' Practitioners, students, & ex-students who have completed Basic Magic through "Tools" are now available at $20 each (specify M or F center). Allow two weeks' delivery-time.
